“We draw on the power of God’s call from the future to summon the strength needed to engage in this transformative process in the service of the whole.” – Nancy Sylvester, IHM, founder of ICCD

Join us by the healing waters at Mercy by the Sea for an important new program offered in co-sponsorship with the Institute for Communal Contemplation and Dialogue (ICCD). This program is designed to deepen our interior life through contemplative processes. From this contemplative stance, our intention is to integrate the skills learned in order to engage persons with different worldviews including family, friends and colleagues and to heal the polarization and impasse we experience. While it is more workshop than retreat, it is grounded in the contemplative and it is timely.

Catherine McAuley's Suscipe: Prayer of a Social Mystic

Sunday, June 14 – Sunday, June 21, 2020

$625.00

Catherine McAuley, Founder of the Sisters of Mercy, was a social mystic – a woman whose relationship with Jesus had direct social implications for the people of her day. As followers of Jesus in the tradition of Catherine we too are social mystics -- Sisters of Mercy, Associates and Companions in Mercy -- whose relationship with Jesus has direct social implications for those we serve in our various ministries.

During this guided retreat we will explore Catherine's Suscipe, listening attentively with the "ear of our hearts" to the fresh and encouraging words she wishes to share with us. Renewed and refreshed in Mercy we will go forth to face the issues of our own time with Catherine's depth of imagination and courage.

Come to the water to renew your connection with life's animating Spirit and recover your potential for joy and peace. Sabbath time can be as unplanned and open as you seek. Time to gather for reflection and prayer will be offered during the week, and spiritual direction is offered by request, not on a daily basis.

Zen Spirit, Christian Spirit: An Interfaith Retreat

ON-LINE REGISTRATION WILL BEGIN 1/27/2020

Sunday, August 16, 2020 – Saturday, August 22, 2020

with Roshi Robert E. Kennedy, SJ

Single occupancy $700

Double occupancy $590 per person

Commuter $100 per person per day

This is a week-long silent retreat (Zen sesshin) during which participants practice seated meditation (zazen) together — about 12 25-minute periods per day — as a supportive community, or sangha. Roshi Kennedy and other Zen teachers will provide daily talks (teishos) to share Zen insights and to encourage sitting practice, as well as opportunities to meet privately with them (daisan) throughout the days.

Silence is observed at all times throughout day in order to deepen experience. Following the final sitting each evening, the liturgy will be offered for all who wish to participate. This is a warm, wholehearted practice of being with ourselves as we are, with things as they occur. The support of devoted teachers and one another encourages the quieting of our minds, the lessening of struggle, and the movement from self-centeredness to life-centeredness. Through this process we taste the richness of human life and become of true benefit to others and our world.

The sesshin will run August 16 – August 22. For those staying onsite, check-in is at 4 p.m. on Sunday with dinner served at 5:30 p.m. Departure is at 10 a.m. on Saturday, August 22.

Directed Retreat Sunday, August 23 – Thursday, August 27 $400.00

This 5-day directed retreat is designed for individuals not able to take the time for a 7-day directed retreat or who are new to the directed retreat experience.
